

SECTION 51 MANUAL FOR Affinity Health (Pty) Ltd (2011/101096/07)

INFORMATION REQUIRED UNDER SECTION 51(1)(A) OF THE ACT

INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000, gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by private bodies that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

The Act provides that a person requesting information must be given access to any record of a private body, if that record is required for the exercise or protection of a right. However; the right to access to any information held by a private body may be limited to the extent that the limitations are reasonable and justifiable in an open and democratic society based on human dignity, equality and freedom as contemplated in Section 36 of the Constitution.

This manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act.

- The form must be submitted to the head of the private body at his/her address, fax number or email address.
- The form must:
  - Provide sufficient particulars to enable the head of the private body to identify the record(s) requested and to identify the requester;
  - Indicate which form of access is required;
  - Specify a postal address or fax number of the request in the Republic;
  - Identify the right that the requester is seeking to exercise or protect;
  - Provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right;
  - Should the requester wish to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner, he/she should state the manner and the necessary particulars on the form.
  - If the request is made on behalf of another person, to submit proof of capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the head of the private body.
  - The head of the private body must notify the requester of the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.
  - If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the reproduction, the search, the preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.
  - If a requester cannot complete the prescribed form then an oral request may be made.

GROUNDINGS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The main grounds for Affinity Health (Pty) Ltd to refuse a request for information relates to the:

Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person:

The head of the private body must refuse a request for access to a record if its disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party, including a deceased individual.

Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party:

The head of the private body must refuse a request for access to a record if that record contains -

- ❖ Trade secrets of a third party;
- ❖ Financial, commercial, scientific, technical information of a third party, other than trade secrets, where the disclosure thereof would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party;
- ❖ Information supplied to the third party in confidence, and if disclosed would place the third party at a disadvantage in contractual / other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.

Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party:

The head of a private body must refuse a request for access to a record if the disclosure of that record would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement.

Mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property

The head of the private must refuse a request for access to a record if its disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

The head of the private body should also refuse if the disclosure would be likely to prejudice or impair, the security of a building, structure or system, including a computer or communication system.

Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings

The head of the private body must refuse a request for access to a record, if the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived such privilege.

Mandatory protection of research information of third party and protection of research information of private body

The head of the private body must refuse a request for access to a record if the record contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a third party; the disclosure of which would be likely to expose:

- The third party;
- A person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party; and
- The subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.

The head of the private body must refuse a request for access to a record if the record contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a private body; the disclosure of which would be likely to expose:

- The private body;
- A person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the private body; and
- The subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.
